Henry Allen & Son FURNISHING

UNDERTAKERS 88 Main St.

ANY ASSISTANT WHEN REQUESTED

Originator of the King Safe Sys-tem of Dentistry. Any person, no matter how old, delicate or nervous, can have their teeth extracted, filled or crowned without a particle of pain or discomfort.

FULL SET $8 Don't buy old style teeth. The Natural Gums on teeth are used only by Dr. King, and absolutely prevent the detection of artificial teeth in the mouth.

Gold Crowns $5; Bridge Work $5;
Gold Filling $1 up; other fillings
50c. Painless extraction FREE when sets are ordered.

All work vuaranteed.

KING DENTAL PARLORS Dr. Jackson, Mgr. 203 Main St. er Smith's Drug Store

People's Market 6 Franklin St.

Large reduction on Canned Goods next week by case or dozen.

Also try Mansfield's Butter-Krust and Sponge Cakes. JUSTIN HOLDEN, Prop.

STORAGE Largest capacity in the

A. N. CARPENTER

23 Commerce St. All kinds of Mason Building Materials, Small Trap Rock for driveways and walks.

> CONTRACTOR FOR EVERYTHING

EDWIN W. HIGGINS. Attorney-at-Law

Shannon Building. mariod BUY THE BIG BEN ALARM

CLOCK WM. FRISWELL'S.

25 and 27 Franklin Street

1913 OVERLAND CAR is here.

Telephone 904-5 and get a demonstration of the best car for the money on the market for next year.

M. B. Ring Auto Co. Chestnut Street

WHITE ELEPHANT CAFE

DAN MURPHY & CO. Ales, Wines, Liquors and Cigars Corner of Water and Market Sta.

TO BE GIVEN AWAY FOR THE WEEK OF MARCH 17th A NEW HAT

at the Palace Pool and Billiard Parlors, 49 Main Street

DENTIST DR. E. J. JONES Suite 46, Spannon Building Take elevator Shetucket etreet

1647

Adam's Tavern 1861

offer to the public the finest standard brands of Heer of Europe and America, Bohemian, Pilsner, Clumbach Havarian Beer, Bass Pale and Burton, Muel's Scotch Ale, Guinness Dublin Stout, C. & C. Imported Ginger Ale, Bunker Hill P. B. Ale, Frank Jones Nourishng Ale, Sterling Bitter Ale, Anneuser A. A. ADAM, Nerwich Town

Telephone 447-12

DR. C. R. CHAMBERLAIN Dental Surgeon to charge of Dr. S. L. Geer's practi

during his man limess. McGrory Building Norwich, Con-

WHEN you want to put your busi-ess before the public, there is no me-ium better than torough the advertis-as columns of The Bulletis

The Bulletin.

Norwich, Wednesday, April 2, 1913. The Bulletin should be delivered verywhere in the city before 6 a. m. Subscribers who fall to receive it by hat time will confer a favor by re-

THE WEATHER.

Today's Weather Forecast. For New England: Fair Wednes-day: Thursday increasing cloudiness and warmer, probably rain; moderate west winds becoming variable.
Predictions from the New York Herald: On Wednesday it will be nostly clear, with slightly higher emperatures and fresh to light winds, ecoming variable.

The outlook for Thursday is partly

The outlook for Thursday is partly overcast and milder, becoming unsettled, probably followed by local rains.

Observations in Norwich.

The following records reported from Sevin's pharmacy, shows the changes in temperature and the barometric changes Tuesday:

The outlook for Thursday is partly overcast, and the partly and the partly in the principal causes of death, 16 being ascribed to that cause, while five died from cerebral hemorrhage, three from train injuries, two were suicidal, one was drawned and one was accidentally poisoned. The following was the record: changes Tuesday:

Highest 50, lowest 39. Comparisons. Predictions for Tuesday: Fair and oler, west winds. Tuesday's weather: As predicted. Sun, Moon and Tides. Rises. | Sets. | Water. | Rises. Day, | | p. m. | p. m. | s. m. | p. m.

5.34 5.32 5.31 5.29 5.27 5.26 5.24 6.11 6.12 6.13 6.14 6.15 6.16 6.17 Six hours after high water it is low de, which is followed by flood tide.

GREENEVI'LE NEWS liscellaneous Shower Given Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alquist at Home of Mr.

and Mrs. Kendall. There was a miscellaneous shower given at the home of Mrs. William Kendall at 560 Boswell avenue Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Alquist of 46 Ann street.

A number of beautiful and useful gifts were received including cut glass, linen and kitchen utensits. inen and kitchen utensils. A rolling oin furnished amusement for a short

Games and music were enjoyed and the party broke up at a late hour wishing the bride and groom a happy married life. Change of Clerks. After a faithful service of about five years, Nicholas Spellman terminated his connection with James W. Semple of Central avenue Tuesday evening and will start his new duties with Stoddard and Gilbert this (Wednesday) morning. The vacancy caused by his resignation will be filled by by his resignation will be filled by

Tried to Stop Workmen. Tuesday morning several men who are at the present time employed in the plant of the U.S. F. company experienced some difficulty in getting into the plant at starting up time, when the strikers tried to stop them. When it was seen by the striking workmen that they could not keep the others from entering the plant, except by main force, they gave up and alby main force, they gave up and al-lowed the men to pass in to their work. No other trouble was exper-

Fifteenth Birthday Observance by Frank Royce of Lisbon.

On Monday evening Frank Royce observed his loth birthday at his home in Lisbon with 15 friends in attend-ance. Instrumental and vocal selec-tions were features of the evening, and many popular games were played. About 9 o'clock all present sat down to a bountiful birthday supper served in the dining room. The table was prettily decorated with flags and fancy napkins and in the centre was a large birthday cake with 15 lighted candles. The evening proved a most enjoyable The evening proved a most enjoyable one and the guests departed for their homes at a late hour all wishing Master Royce many happy returns of the day.

Ladies' Missionary Society. All arrangements for the entertain-ent to be given in Ponemah hall under the auspices of the Ladies' Misgregational church by the children, have been completed. Mother Goose characters and a May-pole dance will be the features of the even's which promises to be a very successful one.

Fisherman's Luck. Several local sportsmen got out poles, lines and hooks, Tuesday, which was the first day of the trout season and spent the day following up brooks but returned home in the afternoon with nearly empty baskets. The fish-ermen claim that their poor luck was due to the fact that the brooks are too high for good fishing.

Wheel Club Wheeling. Wheel Club Wheeling.

The Ponemah Wheel club heid its regular meeting in the club rooms on Norwich avenue Tuesday evening with many in attendance. The monthly reports of the officers of the club were called for and read showing a high financial and social standing and a number of business matters of interest to the members were discussed.

The Children of Mary held a well attended meeting Monday evening. Mrs. T. J. Sullivan of Merchants venue has recovered from a slight avenue has recover attack of the grip.

Amos Paquette of Merchants ave-

Children Cry FOR FLETCHER'S CASTORIA

GAGER Funeral Director and Embalmer

70 Franklin St., Bulletin Building Telephone 642-2 Prompt service day or night. Lady Assistant. Residence 116 Broadway Opp. Theatre. Telephone 642-

49 SUDDEN DEATHS IN

For Last Quarter According to Coroner Brown's Record-Most Were in New London-Heart Disease Led All Other Causes-Two Suicidal and Three From Train Injuries

East Lyme.

Ledyard.

Jan. 8-John Mahoney, Jr.,

March 1-Sylvester Wade, 88, heart

March 10-Unknown female infant

Franklin.

Griswold.

March 13-Mary Sullivan, 70, heart

Jan. 25-Mary Frances Sparks, 74

cerebral hemorrhage. Feb. 16—James Cavanaugh, 78, dia-betes and heart disease. March 7—Orlando Austin Clark, 68

Waterford. Jan. 27—Lillian Myra Mitchel Brown, 44, heart disease. Feb. 7—Joseph Bobsein, 27, hemor-rhage, phthisis pulmonalis.

Stonington.

Feb. 5—Sylvia Fenner, 20 days, asthenia or debility. Feb. 14 — Augustus Terwilliger, mitral regurgitation of the heart.

March 18—Charles Agynski, 48, fractured skull and broken neck when Bozrah.

Violent Deaths in State.

Violent deaths in the state during the month of March, according to un-official figures, totalled 69, exceeding the unofficial record of the preceding month by one. Of this number 53 were accidental, as against 52 in February:

accidental, as against 52 in February; 14 suicidal, as against 10 in the previous month, and two homicides, as compared with six in February.

The greatest number of accidental deaths was on the railroad, the toll being 12. Nine persons were burned to death, seven died from falls, three by

Feb. 6-Nathan Johnson, 72, valvu-

5-Rosa E. Langevin, 6, acc from face in quarry.

dental poisoning.

emorrhage and neglect.

erebral hemorrhage

thrown by a horse.

ar disease of the heart.

COMMON PLEAS COURT

Big Grist of Cases Disposed of Criminal Side.

tence after having the case explained to him by Prosecuting Attorney Whit-tlesey and Attorney Shields, counsel

Frequenters Also Fined.

Moore Case Noiled.

for Aubrey.

way.

In the quarterly report of Coroner Franklin H. Brown of sudden and violent deaths taking place in the county for the first three months of this year there are 49 for that period. Of that there are 49 for that period. Of that number New London leads the towns, having 16 cases which the coroner has been to investigate and Norwich is next with 11.

Norwich. Jan. 20-William Greenhalgh, 66, heart disease. 26—Richard Garvey, 50, of New Haven, heart disease. 29-Thomas Shea, 43, struck by 31-Otto Haubt, 1, scarlet fever, no loctor attending. Feb. 13-Harriet R. Slocum, 77, raēmia. 14—Helen Vaselewski, 6 1-2 months, concho pneumonia. 22—William H. Chapman, 73, heart lisease. March 1—Elizabeth Ladd, 72, heart isease. 3—Julia McKamara, 70, cerebral 10-Gardenies Alvis, 34, railroad injuries.

8—Charles F. Ballou, 73, heart dis-

Dec. 30—George Comstock, 54, angina pectoris, chronic endocarditis.

Jan. 1—John H. Cronsberry, 40, burned to death.

13—Fred J. Smith, 72, cerebral hemorrhage.

15—Ellen Crowley, 48, chronic endocarditis and chronic nephritis.

18—Michael J. Shannon, 5 months, convulsions, gastro enteritis.

19—Santa inzinga, 6 months, convulsionand gastro enteritis. sion and gastro enteritis.

20—William Gorra, 2, asphyxiation from spasm of larynx.

21—Gaetano Reganese, 18, bullet wound in brain, evidently self inflict-25-Bernice E. Leach, 25, gus as phyxia, suicide,

Feb. 10-Unknown foetus, premature birth. 12-William Greenhalgh, 61, angina ectoris. 12—Alexander Zakozewski, 3 months, roncho pneumonia and gastro enter-24-Richard Perkins, 58, chronic ndocarditis. 28-Lucy W. Keeney, 76, chronic valvular disease of heart. 11—Edmund R. Wiggins, 53, endocarditis.

12—Infant Kalmaka, premature birth.

death, seven died from falls, three by drowning, five by crushing, three by trolley, and the remainder from various other causes.

STATE PRESIDENT ADDRESSED UNIVERSALIST MISSION CIRCLE. Miss Belle C. Davis of Hartford Spoke at Church of the Good Shepherd.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missibn circle was held on Tuesday afternoon in the pariors of the Church of the Good Shepherd with the president, Mrs. Joseph F. Cobb. in the chair. An interesting address on A Feinstein of Providence talled on David Goldblatt of Central avenue Tuesday.

A. B. Maine who fell in his grocery store on Central avenue about a week ago receiving severe injuries, is able to be about the store again.

TAFTVILLE

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missibn circle was held on Tuesday afternoon in the pariors of the Church of the Good Shepherd with the president, Mrs. Joseph F. Cobb. in the chair. An interesting address on A Few Things Worth While was given by the state president, Miss Belle C. Davis, of Hartford. The meeting open-off with the usual devotional exercises. It was voted to send the usual sum of money for the support of mission work in Japan. Mrs. E. A. Tracy was elected delegate to the state convention to be held in Stafford during May and Mrs. Sarah A. Woodworth was elected alternate.

A pleasant social hour followed the business session and refreshments were served.

Fifteenth Birthday Observance by the regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Missibn circle was held on Tuesday afternoon in the pariors of the Church of the Good Shepherd with the president, Mrs. Joseph F. Cobb. in the chair. An interesting address on A Few Things Worth While was given by the state president, Miss Belle C. Davis, of Hartford. The meeting open-off with the pariors of the Church of the Good Shepherd with the purchase of all the cases before it by 12.20 oclock. It came to by the state president, Miss Belle C. Davis, of Hartford of the Good Shepherd with the president, Mrs. Belle C. Davis of the Church of the Good Shepherd with the president, Mrs. Belle C. Davis of the Church of the Good Shepherd with the president, Mrs. Belle C. Davis of the clurch of the Cobe to the clurch of the Court of the Good Shepherd with the president, Mrs. Belle C. Davis of the Church of the Cobe to the The regular monthly meeting of the

B NATURAL CLUB.

Entertained by Miss Hirsch and Mrs. C. A. Dowsett-Handkerchief Shower Given Miss Clara Worth.

The B Natural club was entertained by Miss Fannie Hirsch and Mrs. George A. Dowseit at the home of Mrs. Dowsett, on River avenue. Tuesday

Dowsett, on River avenue, Tuesday afternoon.

Appearing on the programme were Mrs. C. D. Geer. Miss Hirsch, Mrs. Walter M. Buckingham, Miss Helen Royce, Mrs. F. L. Farrell, Miss Susan I. Gallup, Miss Ella M. Potter and Miss Clara Worth, The afternoon was spent in a profitable and entertaining manner, at the conclusion of which Miss Worth was given a dainty handker-chief shower, the handkerchiefs helng wrapped in varied colored tissues to wrapped in varied colored tissues to match the handsome bouquet of sweet peas to which they were attached as a shower.
At the conclusion dainty refreshments were served. Miss Hirsch and Mrs.
Dowsett were assisted by Mrs. H. M. Tatt and Mrs. Lester Greenman. were served. Miss Hirsch and Mrs. Dowsett were assisted by Mrs. H. M. Tatt and Mrs. Lester Greenman. z

RAILWAY CLERKS DANCED. Nutmeg State Lodge Enjoyed Feature

Evening at Miller's Academy. Nutmeg State lodge, Brotherhood of Rallway Clerks, conducted its second annual dance, a delightful affair, on Tuesday evening at Millers' dancing Moore Case academy with a good number in at-tendance. Miller's orchestra furnished music for the 18 numbers on the pro-gramme, the dancing being enjoyed was H. P. Adams, president of the New London lodge. Fruit punch was served and all enjoyed a delightful time. The affair was in charge of Clarence P. Messinger, H. P. Adams, W. H. Simpson and Louis Brown.

WORKMEN AS CITIZENS.

Rev. C. H. Ricketts Concludes Series of Talks at Richmond Radiator Co.

Workmen as Citizens, was the subject of the shop talk given by Rev. C. H. Ricketts at the plant of the Richmond Radiator company at noon Monday. This was Rev. Mr. Ricketts closing talk of the season. During the service Abide With Me and Take My Heart. Oh Father were beautifully rendered by Mrs. A. T. Sullivan, who was accompanied by her daughter, Miss Ruth Sullivan.

An interesting volume recently received at the Oits library is Clara P. Ohler's Ancestors and Descendants of Captain John James and Esther Denison of Preston, Conn.

Arthur Adams left Tuesday after.

Arthur Adams left Tuesday after.

Oaniel Kelliher, charged with vagrancy, was sentenced to two days in the county jail. Kelliher was arrested in Norwich in company with Moore and Moore's brother furnished ball for him also, recalling the bail and heving Kelliher put in jail to await trial when Moore ran away.

Kelliher asked Judge Waller for a chance to turn over a new leaf. He said he had gotten in bad because of drink and wanted a chance to improve his condition. "I'm actually ashamed of mysleff" Kelliher told the judge. Cornelius Coughlin of Norwich, charged with intoxication, was sentenced to serve 10 days in jail and pay the costs of the prosecution. Atterney Shields appeared for him. The case against William F. Hill of Norwich was nolled on payment of the Workmen as Citizens, was the sub-struck and that the trouble in question was simply a war of words and he moved the case be nolled on payment of the fine of $15 and costs, which was the fine in the city court in New London. Attorney Hollandersky appeared for him.

Arthur Adams left Tuesday after-noon for Willmantle where he will place himself under the care of a phy-sician.

The charge against Michael Levine of Colchester was nolled on payment of $15.59. Levine was charged with breach of the peace. The nolle was entered on payment of the fine of the lower court, $5 and costs, amounting to $15.89.

David Fitzgerald of Norwich,

Jan. 3—Desire Wilcox, 77, senile de-bility, pneumonia, asthenia. 20—Samuel Mallory, 50, alcoholism. Feb. 18—Adelaide Douglass Chap-man, 77, heart disease. March 4—Mary F. White, 76, heart disease. disease.

March 5—Amos Hopkins, 55 to 60, tractured skull and internal injuries previous time. Case Against Cobb Nolled. A nolle absolute was ordered in the case of Patrick Cobb. Cobb, Mr. Whittlesey said, is making the stipulated weekly payments to his mother. The case against Joseph Perry, charged with falling to send his children to school in Waterford, was continued. Attorney Whittlesey said that he did not think the ends of justice would be served by fining Perry, who would be served by fining Perry, who has eight children, and thus taking money from his support of them.

O'Connell Pays $25 Fine. The case against Michael O'Connell of New London, charged with cruelty to animals, was polled on payment of fine of $25 and costs. Attorney Whit-tlesey explained that O'Connell in attempting to prevent a driver of the Perry Ice company from driving into a side street, used a hoe, injuring the

In Non-Support Case. with non-support, agreed to furnish a bond of $500 to pay his wife $4.50 weekly, and the case against him was continued. A. N. Carpenter of Norwich went surety for Smith. Smith's wife and daughter were in court.
William Walsh of Norwich, charged with intoxication, was sentenced to 30 days in jail, sentence was suspended and he was placed in charge of his father, Nicholas Walsh, who was in

The case against Thomas Delaney of Norwich, charged with non-support, was continued. Mr. Whittlesey said that Delaney is making the payments to his wife ordered by the court.

The case against John Phillips of Voluntown, charged with not sending his children to school, was continued until the end of the current school year. Phillips is now sending his chil-dren to school.

Tremly's Bond Called. In the case of Frank Tromly of Norwich, charged with intoxication, the bond was called, as Tromly failed to appear. His bondsman was Addison T. Gardner. Since the trial, from which Tromly appealed to the court of common, pleas, he has been arrested again and served a jail sentence, then running away to avoid this trial. The bond in the case of Mary Keltey was called, as she failed to appear. She was charged with intoxication and the case came from the Norwich city court. James Farrell was her bondsman.

John G. Kenyon of Norwich was fined $100 and costs for selling liquor on Sunday in his place, 68 North Main street, Norwich, on Feb. 23, 1913. He pleaded not guilty and later changed the plea to guilty. The charge of conducting a disorderly house was nolled. Attorney Bailey, counsel for Kenyon, said he should apply for a renewal of license for Kenyon and asked if Judge Waller cared to hear him upon that matter, but the judge said that would come up later.

The bond in the case of Joseph Cohenski of Norwich was called, as he was not in court. Thomas J. Dodd was his bondsman. It was stated that Cohenski, who is a Pole, did not understand where he was to come for court and that he would be in court in the afternoon. He was charged with resisting an officer. Fine of $100 imposed. HAD BUSY SESSION. The criminal side of the court of common pleas came in at New London on Tuesday morning with Judge Charles B. Waller and a jury and managed to dispose of all the cases before it by 12.30 o'clock. It came in again at 2 o'clock but as there was no hustiness ready.

resisting an officer. Small Prisoner in Court. Columbus Sullivan of Norwich, a diminutive chap of 10 years, was pres-tent, charged with theft. Attorney Dator of Sacred Heart church, Monday's was appointed guardian ad litem.
He said the boy has behaved all right since this offense, which was not a very serious one. The boy's mother was in court and gave assurance he would be looked out for.
Columbus was sentenced to the reform school at Meriden, but Judge Waller suspended sentence and put the boy in charge of Probation Officer C.
A. Northrop of Norwich.
Cases in which Attorney Jeremiah J. Desmond of Norwich was interested were allowed to go over until next for Aubrey.

Attorney Shields said that Aubrey did not maintain a regular gambling place where the public might come, but simply a place where friends of Aubrey, men employed in the same shop, came Saturday nights and played for small stakes.

Mr. Shields said that Aubrey has been severely punished already, having hear discharged by his own broth-were allowed to go over until next term, as Mr. Desmond is convalescing were allowed to go over until next term, as Mr. Desmond is convalescing after a serious illness.

In the case of Jennie Gorman of Norwich, charged with theft, the bond was called. Daniel J. McCormick of Norwich was her bondsman.

The bond was called in the case of James E. Dunn, as it was said he has left the state. Attorney Charles W. comstock of Montville was his bonds-

AT DAVIS THEATER.

George Dixon, John Dillon and Henry Rogers, all of Norwich, charged Returning to the programme of vaudeville and photoplays this week after a week of repertoire, the Davis theater presented a bill that was a winner on Monday and found pronounced favor with the large audiences that were present at matinee and evening performances, In the big act appear the Boys and Girls of Avenue B. a clever, tuneful troupe of seven, whose lively offering in songs and dancing, with a telegraph office as the stage setting, that bring out the seven for curtain calls when their number is over. Comedy acrobats are many, but Vaudeville and Photoplays. had been ready to tell what they knew about the place.

The case against William Roache, of Norwich, charged with frequenting the place, was noiled. Roache is Aubrey's brother-in-law. It was shown that he is but half-wittel and incapable of playing a gambling game if he wished and that on the night of the raid Roache was sleeping on a couch raid Roache was sleeping on a couch raid Roache was sleeping on a couch dancing, with a telegraph office as the stage setting, that bring out the seven for curtain calls when their number is over. Comedy acrobats are many, but Eddie Howard is one who has a line of fun all his own, and some of his whirling free-air somersaults are of the kind that puts him up among the topnotchers in the business. The musical side of the bill is again taken care of by Lottle Gardner, whose pretty continues changes and no less pretty In the case of Edward Moore, charged with intoxication, Prosecuting Attorney Whittlesey said that Moore was arrested in Norwich and in the city court was fined $1 and costs, and city court was fined $1 and costs, and took an appeal. Moore's brother furnished ball. While awaiting trial in this court Moore got into trouble in Norwich and ran away. Mr. Whittiesey said he did not think Moore's brother, who is a reputable man ought to be obliged to forfeit his bond of $50.

Mr. Whittlesey moved that the case be nolled on payment of the fine of be noticed on payment of the fine of $1 and payment of costs. Judge Waller ordered the case disposed of in that

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Vaudeville and Metien Pictures. Real comedy runs through every number of the unusually pleasing bill offered at the Auditorium for the first three days of the week, and this quality met well deserved recognition from Monday's big audiences With the lively vaudeville, the well selected motion pictures make up a programme of exceptional merit.

Frank Graham and Edith Randall have a comedy number filled with action, and with a wihlwind finish which leaves an assorted collection of broken crockery about the stage. The Guy Bartlett Trio make a big hit with their Bartlett Trio make a big hit with their songs and funny stunts. All have pleasing voices and get a good hand for them, as well as for the ensemble numbers. The final vandeville offering is Torelli's animal circus, the performers including ponies, dogs, a monkey, and Bessle, the unridable mule. All the animals show excelent training, and are most proficient in their stunts. Bessle furnishes unending amusement when three boys make wild attempts The case against William F. Hill of Norwich was nolled on payment of the original fine of $1 and costs in a breach of the peace case with which John Donovan was connected. when three boys make wild attempts to ride her.

Peter Burrette will sever his connection with Gustave Paradis of Merchants avenue this week. Louis Paquette who is employed by P. Dion has resigned his position and will enter the employ of Mr. Paradis.

Greenblatt Paid Fine and Costs.

Each I, O. O. F. lodge in the state has received a letter from Grand will do you good or cost you nothing. Master Frederick C. Burrows appealing for ald for the Odd Fellows in Ohio, who were among the sufferers from the floods.

Each I, O. O. F. lodge in the state has received a letter from Grand will do you good or cost you nothing. Master Frederick C. Burrows appealing for ald for the Odd Fellows in Ohio, who were among the sufferers from the floods.

F. S. For children's Eczema. Saxo Salve is guaranteed truly wonderful.

Y. M. C. A. AUXILIARY. Heard Three Papers Upon Civie Pride Breathe and Civic Betterment.

which was the fine in the city court in New London. Attorney Hollandersky appeared for him.

The charge against Michael Levine of Colchester was nolled on payment of $15.59. Levine was charged with breach of the peace. The nolle was entered on payment of the fine of the lower court, $5 and costs, amounting to $15.89.

David Fitzgerald of Norwich, charged with intoxication, was sentenced to 30 days in jail, sentence was suspended and the accused placed on probation. Fitzgerald was ordered to report weekly to Probation Officer C. A. Northrop of Norwich.

Fitzgerald's daughter told Judge Waller that her father had drank nothing since being arrested on this charge three months ago.

The case against John Tinker of New London was continued, as Mr. Whittlessy said that Tinker is conducting himself better than at any previous time.

Gase Against Cohn Notled

have comprehensive planning and the playground movement should come in for its share of consideration.

The public schools are of necessity the gathering point of much of the activity as from an early age, the kindergariens, the schools for three. activity as from an early age, the kindergartens, the schools, for three-fourths of the year have the majority of the children up to the fourteenth year and the feeling is developing that schools should keep control for twelve months of the year, and for a greater number of hours during the day. The schools have the grounds, buildings equipment, and most important of all the teachers and leaders thus furnishthe teachers and leaders, thus furnishing a ready-made basis. The movement of playgrounds connected with public schools alims to make the school the center, not only of the educational life of the community, but of the recreational, social, health and civic life as well.

School workers as well as members of the women's clubs and civic workers can do much in furthering the development of this movement and as Frank E. Smith of Norwich, charged new school buildings are erected in the with non-support, agreed to furnish a different cities a more useful type of building with space for the school playground will be the result. Every individual can wield a tremendous power along the line of creating interest in school playgrounds as well as in public playgrounds.

Civic work for women was the subject of the years, by Mrs. P. W.

ject of the paper by Mrs. R. W. Perkins, outlining the fields in which women's activity will count for most.
Mrs. F. A. Mitchell reviewed a recent magazine article on the Children's League of Good Citizenship.

Hibernians Voted on Candidate. In Hibernian hall on Sunday afteroon, Division No. 1, A. O. H. had a rell attended meeting which was presided over by President Edward A. Pratt and one candidate was balloted upon. Discussion of a dance was taken up and the following committee was named to make the arrangements: P. F. Brennan, Peter Sullivan, D. J. Moran, D. J. O'Neill and Michael F

Jewett City Rumor Not Confirmed. On Monday and Tuesday the report was current in Jewett City that the Ashland Cotton company had been bought by Harold M. Lawton or by interests connected with the Lawton Mills corporation at Plainfield. President A. H. Brewer said on Tues-day evening that he had not heard of it and that he did not believe it was vears past, to Bear Hill, Bozrah. Mr. Smith has been employed as teamster

Paster Praises Curate on Leaving Waterbury. Concerning the newly appointed rec tor of Sacred Heart church, Monday's beloved assistants is going to leave," said the pastor. "Father Brennan has been with us about 10 years, and in that time be has fulfilled the apostoilc injunction that a priest should seek knowledge and practice virtue, and win souls to Christ. Few priests, if any, in the diocese, have accumulated such a large stock of information on such a wide range of sub-jects as Father Brennan. He has edified us all by his modesty, not seeking the applause of men, nor her-alding his achievements through the newspapers, but seeking to please God and do hisd uty unostentatiously. God alone knows the number of souls he has won back to Christ, and the num ber of others he has raised to a highe

Father Brennan celebrated mass Sunday, and he will leave tomorrow for Norwich Town.

Effects of the Gale. Local people hear that the effects of Thursday's gale were plainly seen at hank, and the ocean has swept acr the state road which was built tw

HUNDRED YEAR CLUBS

Believe Life May Be Prolonged. Men who are devoting their lives the study of longevity believe that te the study of longevity believe that in days to come a man of ninety will be in his prime, and old age will begin long past a hundred years.

Scientists have proved that the simple life, temperate habits, exercise, and an active mind are essential to a long and happy life.

When the blood gets thin and sluggish and creeps lazily through the veins, and the arteries begin to harden, there is nothing that will enrich en, there is nothing that will enrich the blood, improve the circulation and restore strength to every backiong walks and do her housework That shows how Vinol strengthens old

Booth's Hyomei

Kill the Loathsome Germs of Catarrh and Banish all Disgusting Symptoms

Just as long as you have catarrh our nose will itch your breath will be foul, you will hawk and spit, and you will do other disgusting things you will do other disgusting things because you can't help yourself. The germs of catarrh have you in their power: they are continually and persistently digging into and irritating the mucus membrane of your nose and throat. They are now making your life miserable: in time they will lace-rate the membrane and prove a fertile field for the germs of Consumption and other microbes.

There is one sure remedy for catarrh and that is Booth's HYOMEL Just breathe it through the inhaler and use the vapor treatment as directed. A complete outfit including inhales and bottle of HYOMEI is $1.00 at drugglests everywhere. Separate bottles of Booth's HYOMEI if later needed 50 cents. The Lee & Osgood Co rears ago in the rear of the cottages No more harm was done to the cot tages by this storm.

First of April Moving. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mullin and family moved Tuesday from East Town street to the house recently built neur Chelsea Parade.

Drectory Canvassers About. Names for the new directory wer eing taken about town Monday

Miss Sara Gilliver of the Canterbury turnpike is in New York city for a visit with friends. Mrs. James Butler of Old Canterbu lane visited relatives in Baltic the first of this week,

The many grip patients in this vicinity are glad to see the sunshine after last week's cloudy days. Children found perfect bluets in blosom Sunday on Vergason Hill White lolets are blossoming on West Town

Mr. and Mrs. George Geer of Plain Hill were in Jewett City Tuesday, where they attended the funeral of a Mrs. Lewis Appley and Miss Abbie

Appley of Vergason avenue were vis-tors in Storrs Tuesday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Wharmby. William Towne and James Towne of Canterbury visited Saturday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Green-

West Town street spent their Easter vacation in Willimantic, where they risited their sister, Mrs. Herbert Tubbs.

Miss Nellie McCarthy and Miss Mar-garet Fitzpatrick of North Franklin were guesis Monday of Miss McCar-thy's aunt, Mrs. George Rooney of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Smith and g to family moved Tuesday from Peck's the Corner, where they have lived for many

at Porter's shop

MARRIED. DENNIS WH.SON - In New York.
March 29, 1913, by Revi William S.
Chase, Edward LeRoy Dennis and Miss Elizabeth Brayton Wilson. CASAVANT — ROY — In Jewett City, April 1, 1913, by Rev. E. M. Hayes, Clovis Casavant and Miss Anna Roy.

CRANDALL—In Old Mystic, March 31.
Fannie Louisa Crandail, wife of Ebenezer Crandail, aged 54 years.
Funeral Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, Burial in Road church district cemetery, Relatives and friends invited to attend without further notice.

BATES In Norwich, April I, 1913, Sophia Connell, widow of Nathan D. Bates, aged 61 years. Notice of funeral hereafter. LORD In Norwich, March 31, 1918 Levi Lord, aged 79 years, of Pa DUNN—In this city, April I, Miss Nellie M., daughter of Mrs. Mary and the late Michael Dunn, of No. 131 Sachem street.

Notice of funeral hereafter.

CHURCH & ALLEN 15 Main Street,

Funeral Directors Embalmers.

Lady Assistant. Herry E. Chiron. Wm. Smith Allen. Patrician Shoes and Oxfords

est Spring styles. $3.50 and $4.00. FRANK A. BILL 104 Main Street

A woman's shoe that's right. Lat-

WE WILL SERVE A Special Dinner Next Sunday April 6th

Music by the Orchestra

WAUREGAN HOUSE PARKER-DAVENPORT CO.

Proprietors

Garden Tools Seeds Fishing Tackle Paints Baseball Goods

The

Hardware Merchants 129 Main Street, Norwich, Conn.

Gentlemen: This is the time order your Spring and Summer Shirts.

CUSTOM-MADE SHIRTS are one of the features of our business.

We guarantee you a perfect fitting Shirt from exceptional material and patterns. The Toggery Shop

291 Main St., Norwich, Ct. Misses Irene and Inez Woodworth of

Just received, a large stock Parlor.

Library, Chamber, and Kitchen

Wall Papers ranging in price from 5c a roll ALL BORDERS FREE

37-41 Main Street

GOING TO EUROPE

o'clock. Burial in Road church district cemetery, Reiatives and friends invited to attend without further notice.

BATES—In Norwich April I, 1913, Sophia Connell, widow of Nathan D. Bates, aged 61 years.
Notice of funeral hereafter.

LORD—In Norwich, March 31, 1913, Levi Lord, aged 79 years, of Pachaug, Conn. Funeral services will be held Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Pachaug church.

DUNN—In this city, April I, Miss Nel-

John A. Dunn, Steamship and Tourist Agent, 50 Main Street

THE FENTON-CHARNLEY BUILDING CO., Inc.

CONTRACTORS

NORWICH, CONN.

GENERAL

NOTICE The road leading from Occum to Baltic, known as the River Road, in the Town of Norwich, is closed to public travel until further notice. A. W. LILLIBRIDGE. First Selectman.

Aldi's Bowling Alleys 327 Main Street Bowling from 9 a, m, to 12 p. m.

10c per string.
Daily Prize. M. ALDI, Prep.

AMERICAN HOUSE, Farrel & Sanderson, Prop.

Special Rates to Theatre Troupes.

Traveling Men, etc., Livery connected Shetucket Street City of Norwich Water Works.

Office of
Board of Water Commissioners.
Norwich, Conn., March 31, 1913.

Water rates for the quarter ending March 31, 1912, are due and payable at the office April 1, 1913. Office open from $30 a. m. to 5 p. m. Office open on Saturday evening, April 19, from 7 to $30.

Additions will be made to all bills remaining unpaid after April 30.

aprid JOHN J. SHEA, Cashies,

Company